More countries to open up face-to-face teaching

Online training to restart in September

Our online training sessions are starting up again in September following a summer break with a webinar on Indian secondary education.

Places for this, and all other training sessions, can be booked through the training schedule web page with members able to use their pre-paid places for core training; contact your account manager for details. Non-members can email events@ecctis.com to book places. READ MORE

UK ENIC e-Statement service is now live

On 1 August, the new UK ENIC e-Statement service was launched.

The e-Statement service is for individuals applying for our qualification comparability statements.

Applicants can download their statements directly from our website rather than rely on hardcopy delivery by post or courier. READ MORE

How have this year's exam results been affected by changes to assessment?

A large number of countries across the world are implementing a return to full face-to-face teaching in schools from September.

This is particularly the case across Europe, where many had already introduced classroom teaching at the end of the last academic year, and most countries are now continuing with plans to fully open schools in September. READ MORE
