UK NARIC newsletter

www.naric.org.uk

The UK national agency for international qualifications, recognition, and skills

Issue 90   July 2019

New training 1: UK NARIC Specialised Fraud Workshop - October 2

In response to the growing problem of education fraud and fake certificates and documents, UK NARIC has developed a new, specialised one-day training workshop focusing on best practice in the field of fraud detection.

The first Specialised Fraud Workshop will be on 2 October in Cheltenham. You can book now, online. This is a concentrated day of training giving deeper understanding and useful practical techniques when checking and evaluating documents received READ MORE

New training 2: our newly developed on-site Induction Programme

UK NARIC is launching a newly developed training programme for member institutions, aimed at new starters in university and college admissions. The training is delivered on-site, at your premises, to minimise expense and downtime. The style is hands-on, practical, and supportive.

The UK NARIC Induction Programme is designed to facilitate team development for those who are new to the admissions environment. We aim to instil confidence in assessing READ MORE

UK NARIC review leads to changes in Hong Kong Qualifications Framework

The use of Qualifications Framework (QF) credits at higher education level has been reviewed for the Hong Kong Qualifications Framework.

UK NARIC undertook this review on behalf of the Education Bureau and QF Secretariat of Hong Kong, from March 2017 to 2018, to enhance the

UKNARIC19 conference filling up fast: make sure you secure your place

Over 25% of delegate places are already booked for the UKNARIC19 annual conference, so book now to secure your place for you and your colleagues. Make sure you take advantage of free places that come as part of your membership.

UKNARIC19 is at the QEII Centre in Westminster, London, on 4 and 5 November. If you need a hotel, then visit our conference accommodation pages for special deals.

The UKNARIC19 overarching theme is: 'Vision. Values. Impact.' We can now announce our 3 sub-themes - our programme of over 40 varied specialist workshops will align with these. You can use these themes to help you tailor your personalised workshop programme READ MORE

Get involved in the New Europass platform scheduled to launch 2020

The new online Europass platform, a development of the established Europass CV and portfolio-building tool, is scheduled for launch in 2020. Phase 1 will launch in February 2020 and Phase 2 by the end of 2020. It is possible to get involved in the development process, which includes the establishment of digital credentials.

The New Europass goes beyond the current folio-builder. It is a set of web-based tools and information to support individuals READ MORE transparency of learning programmes recognised under the framework. READ MORE

Presentation supports sector dialogue at BUILA Conference in Belfast

UK NARIC presented at the British Universities' International Liaison Association (BUILA) Directors Forum and Annual Conference in Belfast on 3 and 4 July.

At the Forum, Chris Lyons, Head of Research and Data Group at UK NARIC, talked about UK NARIC's engagement with the sector. READ MORE

Supporting teacher training providers through NASBTT

The National Association of School-Based Teacher Trainers (NASBTT), invited UK NARIC to attend their inaugural annual awards evening in London on 11 July.

Working with organisations such as NASBTT has enabled UK NARIC to provide support for aspiring teachers and initial teacher training providers. UK NARIC advice and resources helps to ensure that teaching and early years READ MORE

Half-day specialist training workshops: Cheltenham, London

A range of our popular half-day training workshops are coming up in Cheltenham and London. Membership-inclusive complimentary training places can be used for these READ MORE

Quarterly statistics series: April to June 2019

UK NARIC presents the 17th edition of our quarterly statistics series, covering April to June 2019. This shows movements in numbers of completed UK NARIC individual enquiries, by country. READ MORE