Welcome to the January 2012 edition of the new look NARIC News. We hope you like the new design and continue to find the articles we include informative and useful.

Data Development Plans

Following the successful completion of 2011 planned activities, this document sets out the continued Information Development Plan for 2011-2012 (IDP) in accordance with the UK NARIC Code of Practice.

We hold information and data on over 190 countries and we will continue to update these on a rolling basis. However, the 2011-2012 IDP identifies priority countries which require targeted research with the view to providing major updates to reflect significant changes to the system

Particular attention has been given to the following data sources in the identification of UK NARIC priority countries (more...)
